The R & G Corset is made to fit you—not the Venus of Milo or any other arbitrary or theoretical figure.

It fits all over—smoothly and closely as a silk under-vest, yet without the least sacrifice of elasticity or strength.

This is not so much because of the fact that the R & G makers have been fitting American women for 25 years and have developed a general design scientifically adapted to the American figure—

It is chiefly because that general design is made in so many modifications and variations that your exact size and shape is always to be found in R & G Corsets.

NEW TRACTION LINE

Looks Like Aberdeen and Maysville
Will have Another Outlet

It looks like the people who are behind the Chillicothe, Bainbridge and Aberdeen Traction Line mean business. Dr. A. A. Luther, General Manager, with his Chief Engineer, E. H. Bauer, have been stopping at the New Central for several days.

They were over the line yesterday prospecting and started again this morning. A surveying corps will begin work Monday, being followed later by a leveler.

An enthusiastic meeting of the business men of Manchester was held last night to see what inducement could be offered the company to extend their line to that place.

Dr. Luther informs THE LEDGER that his instructions are to push matters with reasonable haste. From present appearances it does look as if Aberdeen will have a road of some kind at no late date. So mote it be.

Last Night Was Elks Night

DEDICATORY CEREMONIES.

Reception, Followed By Christening of the New Home and a Banquet

Dean Lee of Lexington Delivers a Most Eloquent Oration—Some Impromptu Talks

From 3 to 5 p. m. yesterday the handsome Elks Home in West Front street was thronged with visitors in response to the general invitation from the Order for a thorough inspection of the beautiful rooms.

In the two hours named hundreds of guests passed in and out, each one enthusiastic over the beauty of the Home.

The reception was most informal. In the receiving line were—Mesdames Thomas R. Phister, Harry B. Owens, C. D. Pearce, J. Wesley Lee, Hamlet C. Sharp, William N. Stockton, Millard Merz, Charles Holstein, James H. Hall, and Misses Florence and Lydia Rogers, whose gracious style in welcoming the guests bespoke the true hospitality of Kentucky Elks.

For the opening of the Home the afternoon affair was singularly appropriate and one of unusual brilliancy.

The throngs of guests,—elegantly gowned ladies and courtly gentlemen,—music and flowers, were all in keeping with the surroundings, on which so much time and care had been spent by those having the work in hand.

A superb piano occupies a place in the Lodge-room and during the reception hours delightful music was rendered by Miss Lida Berry and Prof. Bullett.

In the Ladies' Reception Room light refreshments were served, nothing having been left undone to make the guests most welcome.

The 8:15 L. and N. train brought two distinguished visitors, Dean Baker P. Lee from Lexington and Mr. John H. Stuart from Frankfort.

The latter is Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler of the B. P. O. E. for Kentucky, and he came to dedicate the elegant new Home of Maysville Lodge No. 704, Dean Lee having kindly consented to deliver the oration incident thereto.

They were met at the Station by Mr. Harry C. Curran and escorted to the Home, where an anxious throng of nearly a hundred awaited.

Shortly before 9 o'clock the beautiful and impressive ceremonies began, with John H. Stuart as Grand Exalted Ruler.

The exercises opened with singing, an impressive prayer by Harry C. Curran Grand Chaplain, and the symbolic "building" of the edifice.

Following came the handing of the keys to the G. E. R. by Mr. Thomas A. Davis, Chairman of the Building Committee, with the request that the finished Temple be "set apart and dedicated to the business and purposes of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks."

At the close of the ritualistic ceremonials Dean Lee delivered the oration, which for finished diction, beauty of metaphor and appropriateness of sentiment has never been surpassed in this city.

In introducing the Dean, Mr. Stuart assured his Brother Elks that while the Rev. Lee might just then be a stranger to most of them, he would soon be one of the best known and most popular men in Maysville; and the oration that followed fully warranted the statement.

Others than those already named who took part in the ceremonials were Messrs. W. C. Waddins, John H. Murray, Harry Daly and N. S. Calhoun, each of whom did his part well.

Throughout there was appropriate music, vocal and "instrumental," and the Benediction by Grand Chaplain Curran closed the dedication.

The visitors and members now betook themselves to the New Central, where Manager Daugherty had prepared this tempting

Two tables extended the length of the spacious dining-room, one headed by Exalted Ruler Gordon Sulser, who presided as Toastmaster, with Dean Lee on his right, and the other headed by Mr. Charles D. Pearce, who had been a most active member of the Committee on House Furnishing and Banquet, with his fellow-Committeeman, Mr. J. Wesley Lee, at the foot of this table, Grand Exalted Ruler Stuart seated at Mr. Pearce's right. It was regretted that Past E. R. Thomas M. Russell, the remaining member of this Committee, was detained in Cincinnati by illness.

After a full and free discussion of the menu, from Consommé to Cigars, the Toastmaster sprung a surprise on a number of the now overfed participants, by calling for impromptu speeches as varied on subjects as Uncle Sam's weather reports.

At exactly that hour, the "Eleven-O'clock Toast" was drunk, all members standing.

Among those who made happy responses to the call of Toastmaster Sulser were Judge Thomas R. Phister, Judge Charles D. Newell, Deputy G. E. R. Stuart, W. H. Trout, Jr., Thomas D. Slattery, Dean Lee, Charles D. Pearce, J. Wesley Lee, Thomas A. Davis, Dr. H. K. Adamson and Harry C. Curran.

Among other incidents, Dean Lee proposed a toast for the success of the little Japs, which was responded to most heartily.

At 12:20 the banquet was dissolved; and so far this morning THE LEDGER has not heard of a single Elk who could not wear antlers of normal size.

The Ashland and Cottontown School excursion over the C. and O. this morning had 21 coaches.

Mr. John Fansler, who has been in ill health for some time, was given a home at the Almshouse Wednesday.

A prominent club woman, Mrs. Danforth, of St. Joseph, Mich., tells how she was cured of falling of the womb and its accompanying pains and misery by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Life looks dark indeed when a woman feels that her strength is fading away and she has no hopes of ever being restored. Such was my feeling a few months ago when I was advised that my poor health was caused by prolapse or falling of the womb. The words sounded like a knell to me, I felt that my sun had set; but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound came to me as an elixir of life; it restored the lost forces and built me up until my good health returned to me. For four months I took the medicine daily and each dose added health and strength. I am so thankful for the help I obtained through its use.—MRS. FLORENCE DANFORTH, 1007 Miles Ave., St. Joseph, Mich.

A medicine that has restored so many women to health and can produce proof of the fact must be regarded with respect. This is the record of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which cannot be equalled by any other medicine the world has ever produced. Here is another case:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—For years I was troubled with falling of the womb, irregular and painful menstruation, leucorrhœa, bearing-down pains, backache, headache, dizzy and fainting spells, and stomach trouble.

I doctored for about five years but did not seem to improve. I began the use of your medicine, and have taken seven bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, three of Blood Purifier, and also used the Sanative Wash and Liver Pills, and am now enjoying good health, and have gained in flesh.

I thank you very much for what you have done for me, and heartily recommend your medicine to all suffering women.—MISS EMMA SNYDER, 218 East Center St., Marion, Ohio.

FREE MEDICAL ADVICE TO WOMEN.

Women would save time and much sickness if they would write to Mrs. Pinkham for advice as soon as any distressing symptoms appear. It is free, and has put thousands of women on the right road to recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence thus entrusted to her, and although she publishes thousands of testimonials from women who have been benefited by her advice and medicine, never in all her experience has she published such a letter without the full consent, and often by special request of the writer.

FORFEIT if we cannot forthwith produce the original letters and signatures of above testimonials, which will prove their absolute genuineness.

APT ILLUSTRATION

How Mr. J. C. Pecor Showed the Difference to a Public Ledger Man.

A PUBLIC LEDGER man was talking with Mr. J. C. Pecor lately, discussing a very interesting subject, when Mr. Pecor said:

"See here, I'll show you now just what I mean."

He went out and soon returned with a bit of board and two bottles. Resting one end of the board on the counter, he supported the other end with his fingers, and poured on the board from one of the bottles a drop of thick, oily substance, which slowly oozed down the slope. Then Mr. Pecor took the other bottle and poured out just a drop of a clear, delicious, dark red liquid. This drop shot down the incline in the twinkling of an eye.

"This first bottle," said Mr. Pecor, "is the old-fashioned cod liver oil, or emulsion, as it is called. The second bottle contains Vinol. See how slowly the emulsion creeps along the board. It is thick, sluggish, unwholesome. But the Vinol dashes to the bottom at once. These two substances act like this in the human body—the cod liver oil is so thick and clogging that it merely upsets digestion, and its medicinal value is lost, while Vinol goes at once to the seat of trouble and corrects the difficulty by creating an appetite and building up the strength and general health."

"Vinol you know is a cod liver oil preparation, and, while it contains all the medicinal elements which have made cod liver oil famous, it contains not a drop of oil, and is delicious to the taste. We cannot guarantee old-fashioned cod liver oil or emulsion, but Vinol is guaranteed to the limit, and if it fails to give satisfaction it costs nothing. We stand the loss. But it won't fail. Try it on our guarantee and see."

J. C. PECOR, Druggist.

A SAD SIGHT

A 75-Year-Old Man Before Judge Whitaker For Being Drunk

He was a world trotter, his name James Caldwell, 75 years old, born in England and raised in Ohio.

He was before Judge Whitaker yesterday morning charged with having taken a wee bit too much.

He was a traveler, a historian and by no means a fool.

He had circled the globe with Sir Dodd and Sir Woodrough, two English gentlemen of unbounded wealth, who were cruising in their own yacht for health and pleasure.

He had been in St. Petersburg, and spoke contemptuously of the Russ.

His wanderings included Tokio, and of the Jap he spoke in highest praise.

After Judge Whitaker had catechised the old man as to his weakness, and admonishing him to touch not the glass when it is red, for at last it biteth like a serpent and stingeth like an adder, or words to that effect, the penitent sinner arose and delivered his spell—

"Your Honor, three years have intervened since I last stood before you. I was sick last night and I took a little liquor for the stomach's sake, and it not being used to the vile stuff it made me sick and tottered my pins."

Notwithstanding the old snoozer's nose was as red as a beet, and his breath odoriferous with the fumes of the swill tub, he was allowed to go hence on his promise to leave town forthwith.
